The Central Panther

Second Edition

1959

Foreword

ARGIE ATKINSON
Editor

"Nothing is now left but a majestic memory"

Longfellow

In the publication of this book we present with mingled uneasiness and pleasure this volume of the PANTHER. It is hardly possible or probable the casual reader will understand the vastness of the undertaking which it has been our duty to perform. Over our work, we have spent many long but interesting hours, we are therefore presenting the results of our labor. We hope that this will be a souvenir of pleasant and lasting memories of the school life of all of the students.

We have tried to make this Annual an impartial presentation of Central High School in all its phases and activities.

To the many friends, without whose timely and great aid the Panther could not have been what it is, we offer our sincere and hearty thanks.

Only a few people are given the privilege of leaving an indelible mark upon the persons with whom they come in contact, to the Seniors, that one is Mrs. Thelma Branch. She has taken a personal interest in the hopes, interests, ambitions and failures of each of us, and has done everything she could to help and encourage us. No problem has been too trivial for her attention, and no disappointment too unimportant for her sympathy.

For her untiring efforts to guide us, it is with profound gratitude and sincere respect that we, the Class of 1959, dedicate this edition of "The Panther."

Principal's Message

It is with a distinct pleasure that I salute the senior class of 1959 and your sponsor for the second effort in preparing a yearbook of activities the school has engaged in during the year.

To each of us this yearbook should have much value in providing some very practical and worthwhile experience. In the years that lie ahead it will renew pleasant memories that can never be erased because of this book.

As you are about to leave the portals of dear old Central, may I take this opportunity to alert you to the fact that these days in which we live are momentous and changing times, fraught with decisive matters of world-wide proportions. I do not believe there is any other time in history whereupon the youth is called upon to exert a more active role than now.

These are times when winds of strife, confusion, and uncertainty, sweep unceasingly across the four corners of the earth. Yet it is comforting to know that men of good will, everywhere are quietly, yet firmly, working and building to secure for all of us a better life and a happier future.

Our Past

In September, 1955, a large number of eager Freshmen awaited instruction for their assignment to the long journey across the plains of knowledge, understanding, and social adjustment. The four years that seemed an eternity today are a reality. Only a short time ago we were Freshmen looking with apprehension, and hesitation, upon four years ahead of us.

As Freshmen we were under the guidance of Miss Beulah Pearson and Mrs. Thelma Branch. With their guidance and our desires, we were engaged in many activities. Mary L. Bryant was crowned Miss N.F.A.; Hilda Coley won second place in Miss Fashionetta contest sponsored by the A.K.A. Sorority; Willie Rodgers and James Bell won championships in the Sweet Potato Show.

At the end of the first year we looked eagerly to becoming Sophomores. Many members of the first year did not return. With the enrollment having decreased we had only one division, and our home room teacher was Mrs. Beulah Brewington, the former Miss Pearson. The class officers were: President, John Allen Best; Vice President, Edward Rodger; Secretary, Miriam Thompson; Assistant Secretary, Dorothy Bryant and Treasurer, James Bell.

This year our activities spread into new areas. Earl Smith Jr. was chosen Treasurer of the Student Council; Hilda Coley, Secretary of the Student Council; Miriam Thompson and Hilda Coley attended the Student Council Convention which was held at J. W. Legion High School, Raleigh, North Carolina. Barbara Waters was crowned Miss Homecoming and Miriam Thompson was district winner in 4-H Bread Making Contest.

The Junior year marked the last half of our High School career. Class leaders were chosen as follows: President, Willie Spruill; Vice President, James Davis; Secretary, Willie Rodgers; Assistant Secretary, Arletha Best; Treasurer, Earl Smith. Argie Atkinson and James Bell were Student Council representatives. Mrs. Branch, our advisor, did a splendid job in directing us through what was probably our busiest year. Willie Spruill was elected Vice President of the Student Council; Hilda Coley Secretary and Earl Smith Treasurer. Willie Rodgers was Patrol Captain. Barbara Waters was again Miss Homecoming. Our class won 1st place for the best float in the Homecoming Parade.

Many of our members were eligible to become members of the Crown and Scepter Club. They were Norma J. Gibson, Margie Bowden, Hilda Coley, Barbara Waters, Miriam Thompson, Argie Atkinson, Lizzie Simmons, Dorothy Bryant, Willie Spruill, Earl Smith, James Bell, John A. Best and Willie Rodgers.

The Cinderella Ball was one of the highlights of the Junior year. The following young ladies were Cinderellas; Hilda Coley, Barbara Waters, Miriam Thompson, Dorothy Bryant and Norma Gibson.

Many of our members were outstanding in 4-H work. John Best won first place in the Poultry Show. Argie Atkinson was a winner in a demonstration on Vegetables in the Diet. State winners in Livestock Judging were Willie Rodgers, Earl Smith, James Bell and Willie Spruill. The following people attended 4-H Camp at Swansboro; Miriam Thompson.

Perhaps the most memorable part of our Junior year was the sponsoring of the Junior and Senior Prom. Our theme for the affair was "Rendezvous With the Stars." Music was furnished by Bobby Banniker and the Blue Notes.

Now we have reached the last rung of the ladder. Knowing the many projects facing us we lost no time in organizing our class. Officers chosen were: President, William Adams; Vice President, Primas Rowe; Secretary, Joyce Parks; Chaplain, James Bell and Treasurer, John Best. Argie Atkinson was chosen Editor-in-Chief of the Panther.

The class attended Senior Day which was held at A&T College, Greensboro, North Carolina. Many activities highlighted our trip.

Our members were still very active in 4-H. Several attended Recognition Day which was held in Warsaw, North Carolina, and still others journeyed to Greensboro for the State Recognition Day.

Willie Rodgers won first place in the local Poultry Chain.

Now we stand ready for our final departure from Dear Old Central. We will become travelers of many avenues which lead us to success.

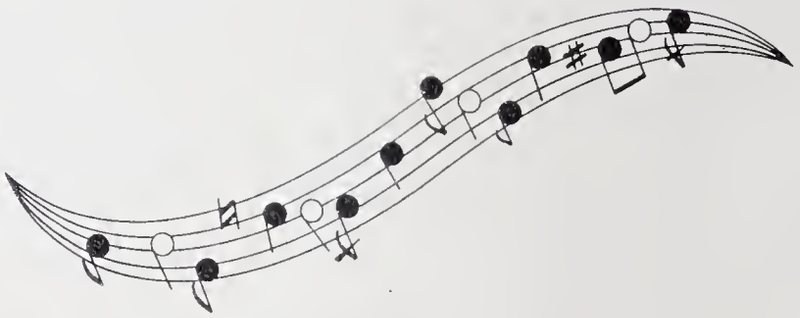
Class Song

TUNE: TENDERLY
Dear Central High, we'll always love and cherish thee;
Our love is true, we're proud of you,
Central dear.
Where ever we go, where ever we be,
We'll always honor thee.
We face the sea, of life's responsibility;
The thoughts that in our minds you leave,
Will treasure be.
Your noble deeds shall in us live,
Till time, till time, dear Central High,
Shall in our praise.



Class Poem

Bright high school years of youthful love,
The dearest years of life,
Filled with hopes and high resolves,
Mingled with tears and strife.

The Comradeship that we have spent
Throughout our high school days
Will give us Courage, and lasting will
To sing our highest praise.

Through summer's heat and winter's rain
We'll travel to a journey's end,
Mindful of the happy school years,
Spent with teachers and with friends.

Our Future

In keeping with the many promises which the class of '59 made to their adviser, I have collected data of the whereabouts of the members. A few years have passed and many have achieved outstanding recognition in all walks of life. As I traveled from place to place, by land, sea and air, I have either seen or contacted otherwise the members of the class of '59.

Without any regrets I wish to submit the following report:

Margie Bowden is married, the proud mother of three and lives in California.

John Best has a wonderful practice as a pediatrician in New York City.

Robert Cox is principal of an Elementary School in Pennsylvania.

Primas Rowe, Kirby Durham are playing professional basketball with the Globetrotters.

Edward Lewis and John Kornegay are in the ministry, pastoring one of the largest churches in Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio respectively.

Dorothy Bryant and James Davis are famous rock and roll artists and are currently appearing at the Cotton Club.

Leroy Kornegay, pitcher for the Dodgers, was voted the most valuable player of the National League.

George Smith, who was the catcher for Central High School's baseball team is now catcher for the Senators. Boy! Is he great?

Willie Rodgers, completed his work at West Point and is now serving in Germany.

Hearlon Martin is an architect and Lizzie Simmons is his secretary.

Leon Best, Louis Artis, Alfonso Battle have made the army their career.

Miriam Thompson is a psychiatrist and works with the foundation of Mentally Retarded Children.

Carolyn Jones and Lillie Durham are Physical Education teachers in Washington, D. C.

Sarah Parks, Norma Gibson, Hilda Coley, and Joyce Parks, preferred to stay near home. They are 1st and 2nd grade teachers at Central High School.

Argie Atkinson is editor for Glamour Magazine.

Vernan Moses, Charles Braswell, Joe Walker are Vocational Agriculture teachers in various schools in North Carolina.

William Adams is a lawyer with a noted firm in Philadelphia, Pa.

In the field of Atomic Research we find Willie Spruill, James Bell, and Earl Smith.

Willie Ward and Elbert Lewis are married to former Central graduates and are employed as postal clerks in Chicago, Ill.

Arletha Best and Barbara Waters are stewardesses with the United Air Lines.

Andrew Middleton and Edward Coley are car salesmen for General Motors, Inc.

Frizzell Worrells teaches Driver Education in Raleigh, North Carolina.

The Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of Central High School being of sound minds and memory, feel that in leaving, it is our duty to leave behind us some of our well-known traits that will make us well remembered.

Item I

To our beloved parents, our thanks for their efforts in securing for us a High School Education, we pledge our deepest respect and gratitude.

Item II

To our faculty who has guided us so untiringly through these years, we bequeath our best wishes for continued success.

Item III

To the Juniors, we will our manners, our good grades, our dignity and our vacant seats. To the Sophomores, we leave our patience to endure to the end. To the Freshmen, we leave the headaches that accompany growing up socially.

Item IV

The Seniors bequeath the following individually as reminders of the generosity of our class.

Argie Atkinson wills her brilliant mind to Shirley Jones.
To Carolyn Kornegay, Carolyn Jones leaves her basketball suit and blonde hair.
Lizzie Simmons leaves her driving ability to her sister, Lillie Simmons.
Barbara Waters leaves her neatness, and hair styles to Vera Jones.
Norma Gibson leaves her figure to Lillian Hamilton.
Sarah Parks wishes for Dollie Herring to use her singing ability.
Lillie Durham leaves her talking and eating ability to Hurley Coley.
Joyce Parks leaves her glasses to Sarah Atkinson.
Miriam Thompson wills her mop hair style to Delois Spruill.
Dorothy Bryant wills her slim waistline to Bettie Rose Best.
Earlene Coley leaves her pony tail to Dora Jones.
Margie Bowden leaves her typing ability to Etta Simmons.
Willie Spruill leaves his tallness to Roy David Best.
Earl Smith wills his shortness to Earl Gilchrist.
To Chester Wooten, Arletha Best leaves her dancing ability.
Charles Braswell leaves his neatness to James Best.
James Braswell leaves his quietness to William Kornegay.
James Davis wills his ability to try harder to Shirley Matthews.
John Kornegay leaves his good behavior to Fred Warren.
To Larry Best, Edward Lewis leaves his ability to sing, and to Ella Smith his heart.
Robert Cox leaves his handsomeness to Walter Wooten.
James Bell wills to Cornell Frazier his ability to fall in love.
Alfonzo Battle leaves his ability to stay in class to Winston Adams.
Vernon Moses wills his drawing ability to Ivory Grant.
Hearlon Martin wills his long lasting love to Ella Marie Smith.
Elbert Lewis wills his ability to give less trouble to Billy Whitfield.
Willie Ward leaves his ability to speak softly to Thelma Sutton.
Louis Artis leaves his nerves to Mary Gardner.
Andrew Middleton leaves his long lasting love to Helen Sutton.

John Best leaves his ability to play basketball to Odell Coley.
Willie Rodgers leaves his Camera and Drawing Set to Willie Paul Atkinson.
